INTRODUCTION

Sometimes, it only takes one sign to realize that something is wrong.

I had several signs that clearly showed me that there was something wrong, that something was not clear in my life. However, what? What was it? I always managed to convince myself that there were worse things on earth than me! When you look hard enough, we always end up finding someone worse than ourselves!

It took me a long time and a long process to put a name to the evil that had been eating away at my life for several years.

It has been five days since I returned to my native country, after 10 years of exile. It is with a serene heart that I set foot again on this land that saw me born. The years of sadness will never be erased from my memory, but I try to move forward in life.

My name is Danielle, I came to attend my mother's funeral ceremony. The ceremony began this morning.

The Essani - this traditional Beti dance - is

FATAL POSSESSION

« A poignant story of rebirth and triumph over adversity »

Sometimes, all it takes is a sign to realize that something is wrong. Despite all the signs, Danielle always managed to convince herself that there were worse people on earth than her!

The incessant repetitions of her life's failures had a source: The possession she had been a victim of shortly after her birth.
